

COURSE OUTCOMES & PROGRAMME OUTCOMES. FOR THE SESSIONS 2019-20
AND 2020-21
DEPARTMENT OF ENGLISH

- Co-1: To introduce e students to British poetry and drama from the 14th to 17th century.
- Co-2: To acquaint students with the Jacoberan and the 18th century British poetry and drama.
- Co-3: To acquaint students with the 18th Century British prose .
- Co-4: To introduce students to Indian writin in English.
- CO-5: To acquaint students with the British Romantic Literature
- Co-6: To introduce STUDENTS TO THE 19TH CENTURY British Literature, especially fiction, and cultural criticism.
- CO-7 To acquaint students with the Early 20th century British Literature.
- CO-8 To provide students and overview of canonical authors from American Literature.
- CO-9: To introduce students to European Classical Literature. •
- CO_10: To acquaint students with Women's Writing in the global scenario.
- CO-11: To introduce students to the Modern European Drama .
- CO-12: To create awareness among students of the Indian Classical Literature.
- CO-13: To introduce students to postcolonial Literatures that evolved in different continents.
- CO-14: To introduce students to popular literature which includes children's literature, detective fiction and campus fiction.
- DSE-01: To expose students to various literary Theories being applied to literary texts.
- DSE-02: To introduce students to World Literature, even through translated work, beyond the British and American Literatures.
- DSE-03: To expose students to partition literature from different perspectives
- DSE-04: To acquaint students with writing for mass Media, especially in the context of India
- OR
- DSE-04: Dissertation /Research Project for students with above 60% aggregate marks for the experience of practical research methodology.
- GE-1: To train students for acquiring skills for Academic writing and composition
- GE-2: To familiarize students with Gender Issues and Human Rights.
- GE-3: To introduce students to the basic ideas of National, Culture, India, Mediating through literature.

GE-4: To offer students some fundamental knowledge in Linguistics and English Language Teaching.

AECC-1: To help students imbibe literary skills and competence.

SEC-1 To train students in English communication skills and prepare them for facing job interviews.

Sekh Sahabuddin Ali

HOD of English